About me.

Ramon Sanchez, a creative leader with 26+ years of experience in UX/UI, product design, illustration, branding, and digital experiences. Currently working as a Senior Product Designer Consultant at Pleo, I've worked with global brands like Getty Images, Disney, BBC, and Cannes Festival, helping teams launch products and experiences that blend engaging design with a results-driven approach.

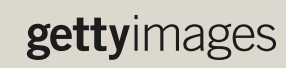

Skilled in the full Design lifecycle, from research to post-implementation review. Strong team player, fostering collaboration with Product, Marketing and Development teams. Passionate about travel, Asian cuisine and a Mental Health promoter.
